

2nd Press Release

DIVERSITE

Co-funded by
the European Union

Learning, Teaching, Training Activity in Lisbon, Portugal hosted by Mindshift

The LTTA is a core component of the DIVERSITE project, designed to equip participants with the skills and knowledge necessary to foster inclusive and diverse workplaces. Through a series of interactive sessions and hands-on training, participants engaged in a comprehensive training programme covering the latest strategies and tools for effective diversity management.

Key Highlights of the LTTA

- Three Trainer Days by Mindshift: Mindshift was allocated three dedicated trainer days to deliver the first iteration of the in-service training program. Their expertise provided invaluable insights and practical strategies for diversity management, tailored to the unique challenges faced by businesses today.
- Comprehensive Training Programme: The LTTA covered a wide range of topics, including the fundamentals of diversity management, practical implementation strategies, and the benefits of creating an inclusive workplace. The modules included:
 - ✓ Module 1 Presentation: Introduction to Diversity Management
 - ✓ Module 2 Presentation: Introduction to Micro-learning and Challenge-based Learning for Businesses
 - ✓ Module 3 Presentation: Introduction to Digital Tools and Platforms
 - ✓ Discussion and Evaluation of Modules' Activities: Engaging all participants to assess and refine the training content for practical application.
- Collaborative Approach: The LTTA emphasized the importance of collaboration, encouraging participants to co-design diversity management plans with their peers. This approach ensured that the strategies developed were practical, inclusive, and tailored to the unique needs of each organization.

Participant Feedback

Feedback from LTTA participants has been overwhelmingly positive. Many highlighted the practical applicability of the training and the value of the interactive learning resources.

Future Plans

Building on the success of the LTTA, the DIVERSITE project will continue to develop and expand its training resources. We remain committed to providing innovative and effective diversity management solutions to businesses across all Member States.

Co-funded by
the European Union

Upcoming initiatives include advanced training modules, additional interactive e-Zines, and further opportunities for collaborative learning.
